From Tuesday December 6. to Saturday December 10. 1726.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 8th Day of December 1726.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint the following Sheriffs, viz.

Somerset, Edward Dyke, Jun. Esq;
Stafford, William Robins, Esq;
Wilts, William Coleman, Esq;

Stockholm, Nov. 16. The Commission for the Tryal of Count Welling being finally settled with the Consent of the several Orders, one of the Chambers of the chief Court of Justice is appointed for those Commissioners to sit in; and they have had some Meetings to examine into former Precedents, in order to regulate the Method of their Proceedings; which it is said they have now settled, and that the Fiscal's Accusation is also ready to be exhibited against him; but the whole Proceeding is like to be kept so secret, that nothing of it can well be known before they come to pass Sentence upon him. Notwithstanding it was given out upon the Muscovite Ambassadour's first coming hither, that he designed forthwith to press for his Audiences at Court, yet he has not hitherto so much as notified his Arrival, either to the President of the Chancery, or to any of the foreign Ministers; though he has passed some Hours every Day with Count Freytag the Imperial Minister. In the mean time, the said Muscovite Ambassadour has bought of the Countess Dowager Sparre, for 5000 Rixdollars, a very fine Coach made at Paris when the late Senatour her Husband was Ambassadour in France about six Years ago.

Hague, Dec. 13, N. S. The States of Holland were assembled Yesterday till Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, and being all unanimously disposed for the proposed second Augmentation of Troops and the other Particulars contained in the last Petition of the Council of State, 'tis reckoned that this Affair is as good as concluded. The said States will continue their Assembly next Week, and the Admiralties are here likewise, in order to settle the Maritime Affairs.

This is to give Notice, That the Accounts of Robert Holford, John Bennett, and Thomas Bennett, Esqrs. Three of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, are made up, pursuant to the Act of Parliament, and that the said Accounts are left at the Register's Office at Symond's Inn in Chancery-Lane, where all Persons concerned may see if there be any Error or Omission therein, and on Application to the Court of Chancery have the same rectified.

By Order of the Governours of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, Notice is hereby given, That the Clergy are to pay their Tenths that will become due at Christmas next, to John Elton, Esq; at his Office over-against the Garden-Gate in the Middle-Temple; where Attendance will be daily given for Receipt of the same, from the 7th Day of January next, to the last Day of April following, Holidays excepted.
